

FINANCIAL ACCOUNTABILITY AND REPORTING REQUIREMENTS, THAT APPLY TO ORGANISATIONS UNDER THE INDUSTRIAL RELATIONS ACT 1996

Documents to be lodged with the Industrial Registrar by industrial organisations other than State organisations

This following information relates to organisations registered under the Industrial Relations Act 1996 as either a "federal organisation" or as a "separate organisation".

Section 292 of the 1996 Act provides that an industrial organisation other than a State organisation is required to lodge with the Industrial Registrar:

- (a) the rules of the organisation - at the time of registration and immediately after any change , and
- (b) the annual audited financial statements - at the time of registration and as soon as practicable after the end of each financial year of the organisation.

Also, clause 28 of the Industrial Relations (General) Regulation 2001 applies the provisions of section 280 of Industrial Relations Act 1996 to industrial organisations other than State organisations. That section provides that an organisation must, as soon as practicable after the end of each financial year, lodge with the Industrial Registrar a statement showing "relevant particulars" in relation to each loan, grant or donation of an of an amount exceeding $1,000.

Please contact Industrial Registry by telephone on (02) 9258 0866 or by e-mail to irc_client_services@justice.nsw.gov.au if you require further information in relation to these matters.

**** **** **** ****