4. THE WORK ENVIRONMENT

4.1 OCCUPATIONAL HEALTH & SAFETY

Go-Lo is committed to providing a safe and healthy working environment for customers and staff. It is our intention to take all practical steps to safeguard our employees and customers from accidents and ensure a safe and healthy working environment.

Occupational Health and Safety is the responsibility of everyone employed at Go-Lo and we must all ensure that our jobs are performed safely. Go-Lo will ensure the success of this policy through the Occupational Health and Safety program, which includes;

- ✓ The involvement and commitment of all employees
- ✓ The identification and control of hazards
- ✓ The participation of employees on safety matters
- ✓ Investigation and reporting of all accidents and dangerous incidents
- ✓ Provision of First Aid and emergency procedures
- ✓ Providing the necessary information, training and supervision to our employees

In the interest of ensuring the safety of all team members, the Employer reserve the right in consultation with a Union Delegate to send any employee home (without pay) who they suspect has presented them self to work under the influence of Alcohol or Drugs. Furthermore, disciplinary action will be taken against such employees, which could include warnings or termination.

Employees Responsibilities

All employees are required to comply with occupational health and safety policies, programs, safe work procedures and practices to ensure their own health and safety and that of others in the work place. Employees may take any action within their competence and responsibility to report or make recommendations as is necessary to avoid, eliminate or minimise hazards in regard to working conditions, work methods or work procedures.

4.2 EQUAL OPPORTUNITY EMPLOYER

Go-Lo is an equal opportunity employer. We will not under any circumstances, discriminate against an employee on the grounds of race, age, sex, sexual preference, national origin, social origin, creed, religion, disability, pregnancy, marital status or union membership.

We will not tolerate this behaviour in our workplace or by others with whom we do business.

We will comply with all requirements of any legislation related to equality of employment.

4.3 PERFORMANCE MANAGEMENT

- (a) To allow the Distribution Centre to achieve fair and reasonable productivity, the company will assess the performance of each team member within the Distribution Centre and the overall site performance.
- (b) As both the Employer and employee agree to each team members working to the assessed levels of skill for each grade, should an employee's work performance fall below the best of their ability, then the provisions for performance discussions, will apply to assist the employee improve their performance.

4.4 PROMOTION

Progression between one grade to another will be at the discretion of the company and will depend on the employee reaching an acceptable level of performance in all the necessary areas.

4.5 JOB ROTATION

To assist in the upskilling of all employees, employees will be required to regularly rotate functions within the Distribution Centre. The Supervisor will put in place the rotation schedule.

4.6 FLEXIBITLITY OF WORK

- (a) All employees within each grade are to perform a range of duties including work which is incidental or peripheral to their main tasks or functions.

Reviewed
Enterprise Agreement

Industrial Registrar

- (b) Any employee directed to perform lower grade duties for any reason, will perform such duties, but continue to be paid at their regular grade level.
 - (c) Employees must be prepared to perform any task or combination of tasks at their grades or grades below, for which they are qualified and competent.
 - (d) An employee has a duty to carry out a reasonable and lawful instruction of the company. Willful disobedience breaches a fundamental term of the employment contract. A lawful instruction tells an employee to do work that is not against the law and is within the scope of their employment contract.
 - (e) Failure to obey a lawful instruction may result in a formal warning or a summary dismissal depending on the seriousness of the matter.

4.7 DISPUTE RESOLUTION

If an employee experiences a problem or dispute between themselves and any other party, it should be settled in the following manner:

Step 1

As soon as is practicable after the problem has occurred, the employee concerned will take up the matter directly with their Supervisor.

Step 2

In the event the issue remains unsettled, the employee should discuss the matter with the Distribution Manager. At this state the employee is entitled to have another employee/or/union delegate present as a witness, if the employee so elects.

Step 3

If step 1 & 2 fail to resolve the problem, the employee has the following options:

- (a) to discuss the matter with a representative of the Union who will set up a meeting between the employee, Union official and Warehouse Manager (or)
- (b) to discuss the matter with the Human Resources Managers.

Step 4

If the problem is still not resolved the matter can be discussed with the NSW State Operations Manager.

Step 5

If the Matter is not settled at the meeting with the NSW State Operations Manager, it can be taken to the Industrial Relations Commission of NSW for resolution.

During each stage of this process no party shall unreasonably delay attempts to resolve the grievance. The initiating party shall be responsible for following up on each stage should no satisfactory outcome occur. During the resolution of a dispute, the status quo shall remain.

7.10 Union members

Consistent with the provisions of the industrial relations act, 1996, the employer recognises and supports the rights of the employees covered by this agreement to:

- (a) join the union and
- (b) exercise all rights pertaining to their membership

All new employees will be advised of the union's presence and informed who the union workplace delegate is upon commencing work.

The company shall, upon authorisation, deduct union membership fees, as levied by the union, in accordance with its rules, from the pay of employees who are members thereof. Such monies will be forwarded to the union at the end of each accounting period with all necessary information to enable the reconciliation and crediting of subscription to members' accounts.

7.10 Superannuation

The company shall contribute superannuation on behalf of eligible employees to the recognised Superannuation Scheme.

7.11 Disciplinary procedure

In the instant of managing poor performance and misconduct the following procedure shall be deemed fair and reasonable:

- 1. Verbal Warning / Diary note
- 2. First Written Warning
- 3. Second Written Warning
- 4. Final Written Warning
- 5. Dismissal

This procedure does not limit the employer from commencing action at a higher level dependant on the severity of the matter at hand.

The counseling procedure is used to cover employees for poor work performance, time wasting, high absenteeism, lateness, misconduct, ect (refer Go-Lo Code of Conduct).

Registered Enterprise Agreement Industrial Registrar

7.12 Instant Dismissal

In the case of a serious breach of Company policies or procedures or other forms of serious misconduct (refer to Go-Lo Code of Conduct) the counseling procedures may be waived and your services may be terminated immediately.

7.14 Ceasing Employment with Go-Lo!

If you decide to leave the Company you will be required to return all equipment that has been provided to you eg. Back Brace, Safety Vest, any Company Manuals or company keys, before you will receive your termination pay.

An employee is required to give one weeks notice or forfeit a weeks pay in lieu of giving notice. If an employee fails to give a weeks notice, one weeks pay may be deducted from wages owing.

A period of notice or termination cannot be served concurrently with annual leave or long service leave. An employee cannot count a period of annual leave as part of the notice period for termination.

8. WAGES

8.1 Payment of Wages

All wages (permanent, part-time and casual) will be paid on the Wednesday, following the completion of a weeks work, being Monday to Sunday.

8.2 Fares and Travelling Time
