ENTERPRISE AGREEMENT

An Enterprise agreement made this 8th day of January 1998, between LABOUR LINQ PTY LIMITED ACN 059 630 349 (the company) and the TRANSPORT WORKERS' UNION OF AUSTRALIA, NEW SOUTH WALES BRANCH (the union), made under the Industrial Relations Act 1996 in accordance with the provisions of Part 2, Division 1 of the said Act, to regulate the following terms and conditions of employment.

Now it is hereby agreed by the parties as follows :

1. TITLE OF AGREEMENT

- (a) This agreement shall be known as the LABOUR LINQ-TWU Enterprise Agreement.
- (b) It shall be fixed and maintained in a conspicuous place at the premises to which the agreement applies so as to be easily read by all employees. If any employees cannot understand the language in which the agreement is written, sufficient accurate (but simply expressed) summaries of the agreement will also be fixed and maintained for each of the employees to be able to read in a language which he or she understands.

2. RELATIONSHIP TO PARENT AWARDS

- 2.1 This agreement shall apply concurrently with the relevant award or awards that apply, as a matter of law and are named in clauses 2.2 or 2.3 herein, or any such other award or awards that apply as a matter of law, provided that the provisions of this agreement shall prevail to the extent of any inconsistency.

3. DECLARATION

This Agreement was not entered into under duress by any party to it.

4. OBJECTIVE OF AGREEMENT

The objectives of this agreement are:

- (a) To enable the company to perform work in the activities covered by this Agreement in a productive and efficient manner;
- (b) To enable employees to work in a productive, efficient, flexible and safe manner in accordance with their full skill and competence to meet the requirements of the company and their clients; and
- (c) To provide appropriate remuneration and conditions of employment for employees working under the terms of the Agreement.

5. RATES OF PAY AND CONDITIONS OF EMPLOYMENT

- (a) Employees under this agreement shall generally be required to perform work under the direction of businesses who are clients of the company.
- (b) When performing such work, employees (whether permanent full-time, permanent part-time, or casual) will be paid according to the relevant award, provided that where there is an agreement (registered or unregistered, and whether an enterprise agreement, award modernisation agreement or award) between the client and the union covering the client's own employees, then the provisions of that agreement will also apply to the employee.
- (c) Paragraph (b) cannot operate to allow in any circumstances the total remuneration of the employee to be less than that payable under the provisions of the relevant award.

6. HOURS OF WORK

- (a) The spread of ordinary hours shall be 6.00 am to 6.00 p.m.;
- (b) A casual employee on each separate engagement can work a maximum of 8 hours ordinary time before the commencement of overtime payments;
- (c) The minimum engagement for casual employees shall be 4 hours.

7. FUNDING FOR THE TRANSPORT INDUSTRY TRAINING SAFETY AND INDUSTRIAL RIGHTS COUNCIL

- (a) The employer shall pay an additional amount equivalent to 1% (not be increased while this agreement is in force) of the total payroll for employees covered by this agreement to the Transport Industry Training Education and Industrial Rights Council, being an organisation established for the purpose of promoting vocational training, occupational health and safety training, safer work practices, knowledge of award and other industrial entitlements, and other services for the benefit of workers in the transport industry.

8. USE OF CASUAL EMPLOYEES

At each work location of a client of the company, any number of casual employees may be used by the company provided that any provision of the award which applies to the client's own employees which provides for a ratio of permanent full-time employees to casual employees must be complied with in relation to all persons working at that work location.

9. DISPUTES RESOLUTION PROCEDURE

In the event of a question, dispute or difficulty arising at a branch:

- (a) The matter shall first be raised with the local management and agreement sought.
- (b) If the dispute is not resolved at this level, the matter may be discussed between the Union delegate and the local Manager.
- (c) Should the dispute remain unresolved, the matter may be referred to an official of the Union, who shall discuss it with senior management.
- (d) In the event of no agreement being reached at this stage, the dispute will be referred to the Industrial Relations Commission of New South Wales.
- (e) While the procedure is being followed, normal work will continue.

10. NO EXTRA CLAIMS

It is a term of this Agreement that the union and each of the employees bound by this Agreement will not pursue any extra claims, award or over award for the duration of this Agreement as specified in clause 10 of this Agreement. This includes claims relating to changes that are inconsistent with the terms of this Agreement. It is also a term of this Agreement that the union and each of the employees bound by it will not take industrial action in support of extra claims, award or over-award for the duration of this Agreement.

11. SUPERANNUATION

The company will make contributions to the Transport Workers' Union Superannuation Fund on behalf of their employees as required by the Transport Industry (State) Superannuation award. This shall occur when labour link has fifty or more employees employed under any Transport Workers' Union awards.

12. AREA, INCIDENCE AND DURATION

- (a) This agreement applies to all employees of the employer, whether employed on a permanent, casual, part-time, temporary or fixed-term basis, performing work that falls within the coverage of the awards specified in clause 2 of this agreement, within the state of New South Wales.
- (b) This agreement shall remain in force for a period of 2 years, and shall continue in force thereafter until replaced or rescinded.
