

Land and Environment Court
of New South Wales

PRACTICE NOTE
CLASS 3 COMPENSATION CLAIMS

Name and commencement

1. This practice note commences on 2 April 2024. It replaces the Practice Note – Class 3 Compensation Claims dated 15 March 2019.

Application of Practice Note

2. This practice note applies to Class 3 claims for compensation by reason of the acquisition of land (“Compensation Claims”), including claims under the Land Acquisition (Just Terms Compensation) Act 1991 (“Just Terms Act”).

Purpose of Practice Note

3. The purpose of this practice note is to set out the case management procedures for the just, quick and cheap resolution of Compensation Claims.

Responsibility of parties, legal practitioners and agents

4. It is the responsibility of each party, their legal representatives and agents (as applicable) to consider the orders and directions appropriate to be made in the particular case to facilitate the just, quick and cheap resolution of the real issues in the proceedings.
5. If any party reasonably considers that compliance with this practice note will not be possible, or will not be conducive to the just, quick and cheap resolution of the proceedings, the party should apply to be relieved from compliance on the basis that alternative procedures will be more conducive to such a resolution. In that event, the party is to notify the other party of the proposed alternative procedures as soon as practicable and is to make available to the Court short minutes reflecting the alternative procedures.
6. Parties are to ensure that all directions which they seek will assist in enabling Compensation Claims to be dealt with at the hearing with as little formality and technicality, and as quickly as the requirements of the Land and Environment Court Act 1979 (“the Court Act”) and of every other relevant enactment and as the proper consideration of the matters before the Court permits (see s 38 of the Court Act).

Legal practitioners and agents of parties to be prepared

7. Each party not appearing in person shall be represented before the Court by a legal practitioner or duly authorised agent familiar with the subject matter of the proceedings and with instructions sufficient to enable all appropriate orders and directions to be made.
8. Legal practitioners and agents for the parties are to communicate prior to any attendance before the Court with a view to reaching agreement on directions to propose to the Court and preparation of agreed or competing short minutes recording the proposed directions.

Cooperation

9. The Court expects legal practitioners and experts to work together to implement this practice note in a practical and sensible way which ensures that it achieves its intended purpose.

Breach of the Court’s directions

10. If any party fails to comply with a direction of the Court that some action be taken by a specified time, and the defaulting party is not able to take that action within five working days of the specified time, the defaulting party is to:
 - (a) have the matter relisted;
 - (b) file and serve, when relisting, an affidavit explaining the non-compliance, the reason for the non-compliance, what action the party proposes to take and when the party proposes to take action to comply with the direction; and
 - (c) provide short minutes of order of the directions and orders the party seeks for the Court to make.
11. If any party fails to comply with a direction of the Court or this practice note, the Court will usually order that the defaulting party pay the costs of the other party of and occasioned by the non-compliance and any relisting required unless it appears to the Court that some other order should be made as to the whole or any part of the costs.
12. Any proposed directions that vary an existing timetable, must include the vacation of listings that can no longer be maintained, including any dates for directions hearings or mention or for the hearing of motions.
13. Any failure by one party to comply with the Court’s directions will not be considered an adequate excuse for any failure to comply by the other party. Both parties are responsible for ensuring that they comply with directions.

Commencing a Compensation Claim

14. A Compensation Claim is to be commenced by filing in the Registry of the Court, by mail, over the counter or through the NSW Online Registry, a completed Class 3 Application Form (Form B (Version 1)) with accompanying documents.

The return date of the Compensation Claim

15. The originating application will usually be given a return date before the Court on a date 12 weeks after the application was filed. On the return date, the first directions hearing will occur before a registrar.

Service of originating application

16. The originating application for a Compensation Claim and the accompanying documents are to be served within 7 days of filing.

Identifying the issues in the Compensation Claim

17. The issues involved in the determination of the Compensation Claim are to be identified by the applicant's and the respondent's contentions on determination of compensation and, if necessary, the applicant's contentions in reply.
18. The contentions on the determination of compensation are to include:
 - (a) the amount of compensation that each party contends should be payable;
 - (b) the components of that amount by reference to each relevant matter in s 55(a) to (f) of the Just Terms Act;
 - (c) the basis of the valuation of the market value or special value of the land under s 55(a) and (b) and ss 56 and 57 of the Just Terms Act;
 - (d) the valuation methodology to be adopted in determining compensation;
 - (e) particulars of any comparable sales upon which the valuation is based;
 - (f) a schedule of any hypothetical development calculations;
 - (g) the schedule of losses attributable to disturbance under s 55(d) and s 59(1)(a) to (e) of the Just Terms Act including, where appropriate, the factual foundation upon which such claim is made;
 - (h) the schedule of other financial costs claimed under s 59(1)(f) of the Just Terms Act including, where appropriate, the factual foundation upon which such claim is made;
 - (i) any matter in respect of which the respondent contends compensation is not payable under ss 61 or 62 of the Just Terms Act; and

- (j) any matter relied upon to offset the claim.
- 19. The applicant is to file and serve its contentions on determination of compensation within four weeks of filing its originating application.
- 20. The respondent is to file and serve its contentions on determination of compensation 10 weeks after the filing of the originating application.
- 21. Any reply by the applicant is to be filed and served 11 weeks after the filing of the originating application.

Number of pre-hearing attendances

- 22. Unless there are interlocutory applications, a Compensation Claim usually should appear in Court before the final hearing on no more than six occasions as follows:
 - (a) at the first directions hearing;
 - (b) for complex matters, at a case management conference;
 - (c) at a conciliation conference pursuant to s 34 of the Court Act;
 - (d) at the second directions hearing;
 - (e) at the third directions hearing; and
 - (f) at a pre-hearing mention listed two weeks before the hearing commences, if possible before the hearing judge or commissioner.

Before the first directions hearing

- 23. Before the first directions hearing, the parties are to discuss and endeavour to agree upon:
 - (a) whether the proceedings are suitable for a conciliation conference;
[NOTE: There is a presumption that all Compensation Claims will be referred for at least one conciliation conference – the parties will need to persuade the Court why this should not be the case.]
 - (b) whether the matter should be treated as a complex matter; and
 - (c) the directions that the Court should make at the first directions hearing.

At the first directions hearing

- 24. The first directions hearing will be on the return date.
- 25. Unless good reason is demonstrated, each party is to be sufficiently prepared at the first directions hearing to assist the Court in making and to accept a timetable up to and including the dates of the conciliation conference and the second directions hearing. Legal practitioners and other representatives of the parties are to ensure that they advise the parties of their obligation to be ready to agree to a timetable up to and including those dates and are to obtain full and timely instructions to ensure the parties comply with this obligation.

26. To assist the Court in making the appropriate directions, each party is to have completed and hand to the Court at the first directions hearing a completed Information Sheet in the form of Schedule A.
27. At the first directions hearing the Court will determine whether the Compensation Claim is a complex matter.
28. Should the Compensation Claim be determined not to be a complex matter, the directions in Part 1 of Schedule B will usually be made.
29. Should the Compensation Claim be determined to be a complex matter, the directions in Schedule C will usually be made.
30. If the parties do not agree, each party should prepare their own written version of the directions they propose the Court should make.

At the second directions hearing

31. The second directions hearing will usually be held 14 days after any conciliation conference if agreement is not reached at the conciliation conference.
32. At the second directions hearing, the Court will:
 - (a) after consulting the parties, determine the appropriateness of conducting the hearing on a paperless basis;
 - (b) if the Compensation Claim is determined not to be a complex matter, make the directions in Part 2 of Schedule B;
 - (c) if the Compensation Claim is determined to be complex, make the directions in Schedule C;
 - (d) hear any application for directions for expert evidence; and
 - (e) not fix a hearing date until all evidence has been filed.

At the third directions hearing

33. At the third directions hearing, being 7 days after all evidence is filed, the Court will make the directions in Part 3 of Schedule B.

At the pre-hearing mention

34. The pre-hearing mention will be two weeks before the hearing. If possible, it will be before the judge or commissioner allocated to hear the proceedings. Counsel or solicitors briefed to appear on the hearing should attend.
35. The purpose of the pre-hearing mention is to ensure readiness for hearing and to give directions as to the conduct of the hearing and of any inspection of the resumed property and comparable sale properties. Prior to the pre-hearing mention, in accordance with any direction made, the parties are to file:

- (a) one copy of the Court Book (either in a folder [if the hearing is to be paper-based] or electronically [if paperless] (e.g. on a USB stick));
- (b) one copy of the Evidence Book (either in folders [if the hearing is to be paper-based] or electronically [if paperless] (e.g. on a USB stick)); and
- (c) one copy of the bundle of documents (either in folders [if the hearing is to be paper-based] or electronically [if paperless] (e.g. on a USB stick)).

NOTE: If all the material required by (a) to (c) for a paperless hearing can be loaded on a single USB stick, this is to be done.

36. The Court Book is to include:

- (a) a statement by the respondent as to those matters which might have been expected to be contested but which are no longer contested by the respondent;
- (b) an agreed table setting out the matters in s 55(a) to (f) and s 59(1) of the Just Terms Act in respect of which the applicant claims compensation. This table should set out the amount claimed for each matter; the statutory provision pursuant to which the claim is made; a short summary (maximum one, 10 line paragraph) of the basis for the claim; and, if a claimed matter is disputed by the respondent, the amount (if any) conceded by the respondent and a short summary (maximum one, 10 line paragraph) by the respondent as to the nature of the dispute concerning this claimed matter; and
- (c) an agreed schedule:
 - (i) containing a brief description of the resumed property and each comparable sale property that it is proposed the Court should inspect;
 - (ii) noting which party relies on each comparable sale;
 - (iii) including a map showing the location of each property; and
 - (iv) if a site inspection is determined to be necessary, proposing a time when the hearing judge or commissioner should inspect the properties and the arrangements for inspection.

37. The Court at the pre-hearing mention will determine whether an onsite inspection is necessary and if so, when such inspection will take place. The parties will be required to identify what properties each party contends should be physically inspected and why such inspection is necessary. The parties are to give genuine consideration to the necessity for such inspection to enable the just, quick and cheap resolution of the real issues in dispute in the proceedings.

38. If any witness is required for cross-examination at the hearing, notice is to be given before the pre-hearing mention.

The hearing

39. Evidence and submissions at the hearing are to address all issues the subject of the proceedings. No issue will be separately determined unless the Court so orders.

NOTE: Application for separate determination of questions, under s 62(2) of the Civil Procedure Act 2005 or Pt 28 r 28.2 of the Uniform Civil Procedure Rules, should be made by notice of motion with supporting affidavit.

40. Unless the hearing judge or commissioner otherwise directs, expert evidence is to be taken concurrently where there are two or more experts giving evidence in the same area of expertise. Parties are to ensure that any witnesses to be called are reasonably available during the period the proceedings are listed for hearing so as to ensure the efficient conduct of the hearing.
41. At the commencement of oral evidence of any witness, counsel or the solicitor appearing for a party, having conferred beforehand, are to hand to the hearing judge or commissioner agreed or competing lists of the topics on which it is proposed to cross-examine and for which leave is sought. Generally, the conduct of the hearing will not be determined by the convenience of a particular witness.
42. Opening submissions of not more than 10 pages are to be filed 10 working days prior to the hearing. The brief opening submissions should not generally be a substitute for a written outline of closing submissions.
43. The Court will usually be assisted by a written outline of closing submissions that includes references to evidence in the Evidence Book, the bundle of documents and oral evidence. The written outline of closing submissions should be filed and served for the early attention of the hearing judge or commissioner.

Seeking directions before adducing expert evidence

44. Parties are encouraged to consider whether there is a genuine need to adduce expert evidence on any issue in dispute. Unnecessary expert evidence substantially increases the time and cost of Compensation Claims.
45. Parties may not adduce expert evidence in a Compensation Claim unless directions have been sought and made under r 31.19 of the Uniform Procedure Rules 2005 (NSW) ("UCPR") and otherwise than in accordance with those directions (see r 31.19(3) of the UCPR).
46. The Court may give directions in relation to the use of expert evidence generally and as to any matter in r 31.20(2) of the UCPR, including:
- (a) any limitation on the subject matter or issues on which the expert evidence may be adduced;
 - (b) the identity of the expert who may adduce expert evidence on a subject matter or issue;

- (c) any limitation on the number of expert witnesses who may be called to give evidence on a subject matter or issue;
 - (d) the date for filing and serving the expert evidence; and
 - (e) the date for experts to confer and prepare a joint report.
47. Before directions are sought to adduce expert evidence, the parties and their legal representatives are to ensure that the expert has agreed to provide the expert evidence, including any report, in accordance with such directions as the Court may make, including the dates for joint conferencing and report and filing expert evidence.
48. An application for directions to adduce expert evidence will be heard on a date allocated for that purpose. This could be at a scheduled directions hearing or a date fixed at a directions hearing for hearing of the application.
49. The application for directions to adduce expert evidence should include but not be limited by the answers to the questions in Schedule A.
50. Should a party seek to vary the directions the Court has made regarding expert evidence, application to vary the directions is to be made by notice of motion together with an accompanying affidavit that identifies:
- (a) the variation sought;
 - (b) if variation is to extend the time for filing the expert evidence, the extension of time sought;
 - (c) the reason for the need for variation; and
 - (d) the time upon which both the expert and the legal practitioner or party first became aware of the need for variation.

Use of a parties' single expert

51. Where expert evidence is necessary to be adduced in relation to an issue, the Court encourages parties to use a parties' single expert. The use of a parties' single expert in an appropriate case can reduce costs and ensure the Court has the benefit of evidence from a person who is not engaged by only one party. In determining whether a parties' single expert might be appropriate in a particular case, consideration should be given to:
- (a) the importance and complexity of the subject matter in dispute in the proceedings;
 - (b) the likely cost of obtaining expert evidence from a parties' single expert compared to the alternative of obtaining expert evidence from individual experts engaged by each of the parties;
 - (c) the proportionality of the cost in (b) to the importance and complexity of the subject matter in (a);

- (d) whether the use of a parties' single expert in relation to an issue is reasonably likely either to narrow the scope of the issue or resolve the issue; the nature of the issue, including:
 - (i) whether the issue is capable of being answered in an objectively verifiable manner;
 - (ii) whether the issue involves the application of accepted criteria (such as Australian Standards) to ascertainable facts;
 - (iii) whether the issue is likely to involve a genuine division of expert opinion on methodology, or schools of thought in the discipline;
 - (e) whether the parties' single expert would be required independently to obtain further information or to undertake monitoring, surveys or other means of obtaining data before being able to provide expert evidence;
 - (f) whether the parties are prepared at the time to proceed to hearing on the basis of a parties' single expert report about the issue and no other expert evidence about that issue;
 - (g) whether the integrity of expert evidence on the issue is likely to be enhanced by evidence being provided by a parties' single expert instead of by individual experts engaged by the parties; and
 - (h) whether the Court is likely to be better assisted by expert evidence on the issue being provided by a parties' single expert instead of by individual experts engaged by the parties.
52. If the parties agree on the use of a parties' single expert, directions still need to be sought and made permitting the appointment of and adducing of expert evidence from that expert.
53. It is the responsibility of the parties to agree the remuneration to be paid to a parties' single expert. This includes making provision with respect to the amount of the expert's fees and the frequency with which the expert renders accounts. The Court will fix the remuneration of a parties' single expert only where the parties are unable to agree that remuneration.
54. Where a parties' single expert has been appointed to adduce evidence in relation to any issue, the parties may not rely on any other expert evidence about that issue without leave. Any application for leave is to be made by notice of motion with an affidavit in support as soon as reasonably possible and usually no later than five days after receiving the report of the parties' single expert.

Expert's compliance with expert witness code of conduct

55. An expert (including a parties' single expert) and the expert's report are to comply with the requirements of Division 2 of Pt 31 of the UCPR and the Expert Witness Code of Conduct in Schedule 7 of the UCPR.

56. An expert witness should identify any pre-existing relationship between the expert witness, or their firm or company, and a party to the litigation.

Joint conferencing of experts

57. If experts are directed by the Court to confer, experts are to ensure that their joint conference is a genuine dialogue between experts in a common effort to reach agreement with the other expert witness about the relevant facts and issues. Any joint report is to be a product of this genuine dialogue and is not to be a mere summary or compilation of the pre-existing positions of the experts.
58. Legal representatives are not to attend joint conferences of experts or be involved in the preparation of joint reports without the leave of the Court.

Notices of motion

59. Any notice of motion is to be returnable at a directions hearing unless the circumstances are so urgent as to justify an earlier listing. Parties and legal practitioners should file and serve evidence in support of the motion so that, if practicable, the motion may be heard on the return date.

Amendment of contentions on determination of compensation

60. Parties require leave of the Court to amend their Contentions on Determination of Compensation.
61. Other than amendments sought during the hearing or where the other party consents, leave to amend is to be sought by notice of motion accompanied by a short affidavit in support explaining the reasons for leave being sought.

Liberty to restore

62. Parties have general liberty to restore to the Compensation Claim on three working days' notice, or less if urgency requires it. A party seeking to do so should make prior arrangement with, or give appropriate notice to, any other party, and should send an Online Court communication or, if not legally represented, an e-mail to the registrar.

Applications to vacate hearings and for adjournments

63. Compensation Claims will not be adjourned generally.
64. Compensation Claims usually will not be adjourned because of failure to comply with this practice note or directions or because of lack of preparedness for any attendance before the Court. If failure to comply or lack of preparedness nevertheless does cause the adjournment of proceedings, the defaulting parties or legal practitioners may be ordered to pay costs.
65. Applications to vacate hearing dates or conciliation conferences are to be by notice of motion, with an affidavit in support explaining the circumstances of the application and the reasons the hearing date should be vacated.

Settlement of proceedings

66. If proceedings settle on terms that require the Court to make an order, it is necessary to apply to the Court to make orders finalising the litigation:
- (a) the application is to be by written request to the registrar accompanied by a copy of the proposed final consent orders signed by all parties;
 - (b) if the Court considers the consent orders finalising the proceedings to be satisfactory, orders may be made in chambers; and
 - (c) if orders are not made in chambers, the proceedings will be listed before a judge, commissioner or registrar. Representatives of the parties attending the listing must be familiar with the subject matter of the proceedings and have instructions sufficient to inform the Court about the terms of the proposed orders.
67. If proceedings are to be discontinued, a notice of discontinuance is to be filed with the Registry by Online Registry or in hard copy at the Registry Counter.

Mediation, conciliation, neutral evaluation or reference

68. Consideration should be given prior to and throughout the course of the proceedings as to whether the proceedings or any questions are appropriate for mediation, conciliation, neutral evaluation or reference to a referee for inquiry and report.
69. It is expected that legal practitioners, or parties not legally represented, will be in a position to advise the Court at any directions hearing:
- (a) whether the parties have attempted mediation, conciliation or neutral evaluation; and
 - (b) whether the parties are willing to proceed to mediation, conciliation, neutral evaluation or reference to a referee for inquiry and report at an appropriate time.
70. At a mediation, conciliation or neutral evaluation, the parties are to ensure that a person who is able to make a decision as to whether the proceedings or any particular issue should settle or be resolved is present personally or represented by an authorised nominee. If this is not possible, a person with authority must be contactable and have authority to confirm acceptance of any proposed settlement.
71. Where the proceedings or questions are appropriate to be referred to a mediator, conciliator or neutral evaluator or to a referee for inquiry and report, the parties should prepare proposed short minutes to be handed to the Court which:
- (a) where questions are to be referred, formulate the questions with precision; and

- (b) state:
 - (i) that the matter is to be mediated by an in-court mediator or conciliator, or the name of an agreed external mediator, neutral evaluator or referee or, if no agreement can be reached, the person each party suggests;
 - (ii) the date on which the mediator, neutral evaluator or referee can commence the mediation, neutral evaluation or reference;
 - (iii) expected duration of the mediation, neutral evaluation or reference; and
 - (iv) the anticipated date for finalisation of the mediation or neutral evaluation, or for delivery to the Court of the referee's report.
72. Proposed consent orders for amendment to the questions referred to a mediator, neutral evaluator or referee may be filed with the Court, which may make such orders in chambers. Any contested amendments, or amendments in respect of which the Court wishes to hear the parties, will be heard on a date notified to the parties by the registrar.

Costs and compliance

73. If a breach of the Court's directions or of this practice note causes costs to be thrown away, a party or legal practitioner responsible for the breach may be ordered to pay those costs.
74. The cost of unnecessary photocopying and assembly of documents is unacceptable. Legal practitioners for the parties are to consider carefully the documents necessary to be tendered. Excessive documents may attract adverse costs orders.

Proceedings No. _____

Parties _____

Applicant _____

Respondent _____

1. Has the Respondent provided the Applicant with access to, and copies of, relevant documents? YES/NO

If not, when will access be provided?

2. Has the Applicant notified the Respondent of the compensation which the applicant seeks? YES/NO

If not, when will the Applicant do so?

3. Have the parties sought to resolve their dispute by mediation? YES/NO
[Give details of the steps taken to resolve the dispute]

4. Is there any reason for the proceedings not be fixed for a conciliation conference under s 34 of the Land and Environment Court Act 1979 (NSW)? If so, provide reasons.

5. Have the parties conferred and identified whether they propose to rely on any expert evidence? YES/NO

If yes, state the identity of each expert, the area of expertise, the issues on which expert evidence is to be adduced, the reason why the expert evidence is necessary and the dates the expert is available to prepare expert evidence and appear at the hearing.

6. Can all expert evidence be filed at the same time or does some evidence need to be prepared before or after other evidence?

If yes, state directions sought and reasons.

7. If parties' single experts are agreed, set out below their name, charge rates, estimate of total fees and disbursements and available dates to prepare expert evidence and appear at a hearing.

8. If parties' single experts are not appropriate, state the reasons why not.

9. Can the parties' experts proceed directly to a joint conference and joint report, without preparing individual reports? If so, identify the experts and areas of expertise. If not, provide the reasons why not.

10. Are there any experts who should prepare an individual report before proceeding to a joint conference and joint report and, if so, identify the expert, the area of expertise and provide reasons supporting the individual report being necessary or appropriate?

11. Identify number and names of lay witnesses and available dates to appear at the hearing.

12. I state that the expert witnesses for whom leave to adduce expert evidence has been sought have been advised of the directions sought to be obtained at 5, 6 and 7 above and they have advised me that they are able to comply with any such directions and acknowledge their obligation to do so and that leave will be limited to only such evidence that complies with directions made by the Court.

SCHEDULE B

Usual Directions for Class 3 Compensation Claims

Note: Strike through/amend as required.

PART 1

First Directions Hearing

1. By # [+ 7 days of the first directions hearing], the Respondent is to provide the applicant with access to and copies of documents within the possession, custody or control of the Respondent relevant to the Respondent's consideration and determination of the compensation claim. The applicant must meet the reasonable copying costs of the Respondent in so doing.
2. A conciliation conference under s 34 of the Land and Environment Court Act 1979 (NSW) is arranged for #.
3. The proceedings are listed for a second directions hearing on # [+ 14 days after the conciliation conference].
4. The [party's] application for directions to adduce expert evidence is listed on # before # [this may be at the second directions hearing].
5. If the proceedings are resolved at or after the conciliation conference, the parties are to notify the Court at least 48 hours before the date of the second directions hearing.

PART 2

Second Directions Hearing

1. Under rr 31.19 and 31.20 of the Uniform Civil Procedure Rules 2005 ('UCPR'), the Court makes the following directions regarding expert evidence:
 - (a) [name of the expert witness] may prepare an individual expert's report on [specified issues];
 - (b) [the named experts] are to confer in relation to [specified issues] under UCPR r 31.24 and prepare a joint expert report;
 - (c) the individual expert's report of [named expert] is to be filed and served by [date];
 - (d) the joint expert report of [named experts] is to be filed and served by [date].

Note: The above directions may be duplicated for each area of expertise required.

2. Unless the Court otherwise orders, expert evidence may not be adduced at the hearing otherwise than in accordance with the directions made by the Court in accordance with UCPR rr 31.19 and 31.20, including compliance with directions as to the time for service and filing of experts' reports and joint expert reports.
3. Parties are to serve a copy of these directions, the statements of contentions on determination of compensation, Division 2 of Pt 31 of the Uniform Civil Procedure Rules, the Expert Witness Code of Conduct in Schedule 7 of the Uniform Civil Procedure Rules, and the Court policies on Joint Reports and on Conference of Expert Witnesses on all experts upon whose evidence they propose to rely within 3 business days of these orders being made, or, for a statement of facts and contentions (or reply) filed after the making of these orders, within 3 business days of them being filed or served.
4. Experts are directed to give written notice to the Court and the party instructing them if for any reason they anticipate that they cannot comply with these directions. In that case, or if the experts have failed to comply with these directions, the parties will promptly list the matter before the Court for directions and give written notice to the other parties.

5. Experts are to ensure that a joint conference is a genuine dialogue between experts in a common effort to reach agreement with the other expert witness about the relevant facts and issues. Any joint report is to be a product of this genuine dialogue and is not to be a mere summary or compilation of the preexisting positions of the experts.
6. A joint report is to identify the experts involved in its preparation, the date of their joint conferences, the matters they agreed about, the matters they disagreed about and reasons for agreement and disagreement. A joint report should avoid repetition and be organised to facilitate a clear understanding of the final position of the experts about the matters in issue and the reasoning process they used to reach those positions. Each expert is to sign and date the joint report.
7. Legal representatives are not to attend joint conferences of experts or be involved in the preparation of joint reports without the leave of the Court.
8. At the hearing the evidence of experts is to be given by way of concurrent evidence, unless the hearing judge or commissioner directs otherwise.
9. A party calling a witness may not, without the leave of the Court, lead evidence from the witness the substance of which is not included in a document served in accordance with the Court's directions.
10. If any witness is required for cross-examination, notice is to be given prior to the pre-hearing mention.
11. A party who proposes to object to any part of an affidavit, statement or report is to file and serve notice of its objections, including the grounds in support, at least seven days before the hearing.
12. The matter is fixed for a third directions hearing on # [7 days after final evidence is to be filed]

PART 3

Third Directions Hearing

1. The hearing is fixed for # days commencing on #.
2. A pre-hearing mention is listed on #[date two weeks prior to hearing] and #[time].
3. The parties are to confer and prepare a paginated and consecutively numbered Court Book with a table of contents, a copy of the originating application and pleadings and any objections to evidence or documents in the bundle of documents.
4. The parties are to confer and prepare a paginated and consecutively numbered Evidence Book with a table of contents and the lay and expert evidence (with expert reports grouped by discipline). The table of contents for the Evidence Book is to conform with the template in Schedule D to this practice note.
5. The parties are to confer and prepare a bundle of documents (the bundle) on which the parties seek to rely. The bundle is to include a table of contents and be paginated and consecutively numbered. The bundle is not to include documents annexed or exhibited to an affidavit unless there are good reasons to do so.
6. Correspondence and other documents in the bundle of documents are to be arranged in chronological order.
7. Any party objecting to the tender of any evidence in the Evidence Book or a document within the bundle of documents is to notify the other party of the objection and the grounds in support at least three working days before the Court Book, Evidence Book and bundle of documents are to be filed. The documents subject to objection are to be included in the Evidence Book or bundle of documents, but the objection, as well as the party tendering the document and the party objecting to the tender, is to be noted in the table of contents to the Evidence Book or bundle of documents. Short reasons for each objection are to be provided in the Court Book.
8. The parties are to file and serve their opening submissions of not more than ten pages; an agreed statement of facts; an agreed (or, if not agreed, their competing) chronology; and (where warranted by the number of persons involved) a list of relevant persons by 10 working days prior to the hearing.

9. The parties are to file and serve any submissions in reply of no more than five pages by five working days prior to the hearing.
10. The parties are to file:
 - (a) the Court Book;
